FGASA GUIDING PRINCIPLES AND CODE OF CONDUCT

All individuals wanting to become a member are required to sign the FGASA Guiding principles and Code of Conduct indicating that they will endeavour to abide by and uphold these principles.

All Associates of The Field Guides Association of Southern Africa (FGASA) subscribe to the "Guiding principles and Code of Conduct" laid down by the Association. The Code of Conduct should be signed by each Associate on joining the Association.

1. ADHERENCE TO UNIVERSAL PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS, NORMS AND VALUES

I welcome tourists to the Country, and promise to serve competently and professionally those under my guidance, and I endeavour to the best of my ability to satisfy their expectations as valued guests and visitors to the Country by dealing with the applicable tour programme and itinerary in a responsible and efficient manner.

2. ADHERENCE TO SOUTH AFRICA'S LAWS, REGULATIONS AND CUSTOMS

I adhere to and support the Country's constitution, laws and regulations, tourism acts and conservation laws and I undertake to assist tourists under my guidance to respect local laws, regulations and customs; in addition, I promise to support and uphold the mission and values of the tourist organization I represent, and I submit to the applicable controls, sanctions and disciplinary procedures. I promise to cooperate within my own levels of expertise and refrain from entering areas for which I am not qualified.

3. PROMISE TO PROVIDE RELIABLE INFORMATION

I promise to provide knowledgeable, correct, fair and unbiased information on South Africa to tourists under my guidance, and I promise to keep an open mind towards comments and feedback from visitors to the Country. I undertake to apply professional skills and knowledge that I have acquired through training and experience.

4. UNDERTAKE TO CARE FOR THE SAFETY OF TOURISTS

I undertake to implement all reasonable measures to protect the personal safety of tourists under my guidance, and, in the event of acting as nature guide, I undertake to operate safely and responsibly in whatever mode of transport is used; in addition, in the event of any accident, injury, mishap or other situation that compromises the safety of those under my guidance, I pledge to immediately contact the relevant authority for assistance.

5. STATEMENT ON FIRST AID PROTOCOLS

As a certified first-aider, I adhere to the applicable ethical norms and first-aid procedures, and, when requested for aid, commit myself to provide competent first-aid assistance according to standing protocols.

6. ATTITUDE OF RESPECT TOWARDS PEOPLE AND THE ENVIRONMENT

At all times I treat with respect all people of the world, all languages, all cultures and all religions, local and other customs, histories and folklore, and the indigenous natural environment and animals. All guiding activities should be conducted in such a manner as to cause the least possible damage to the environment and encouragement should be given to remove litter thus improving the environment.

7. AVOIDANCE OF DISCRIMINATORY ACTION

At all times I refrain from any discriminatory, abusive, insensitive or irresponsible action and promise to act fairly in the event of any dispute or conflict.

8. AVOIDANCE OF SUBSTANCE ABUSE

At all times I refrain from and avoid substance abuse, smoking in inappropriate areas, or use of any narcotic drug, and I promise to maintain my sobriety.

9. ADHERENCE TO A DRESS CODE

I undertake to dress appropriately at all times, and to display the relevant registration badge as a mark of my professional integrity and standards.

10. STATEMENT OF RELIABILITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

I undertake to be on time, reliable, honest, conscientious and tactful. The number of people comprising a party should be appropriate to my qualifications as a guide, the nature of the trail, the terrain and the type of activities engaged in.

11. REJECTION OF TOUTING

I do not solicit for clients or gratuity.

I, _____, will subscribe to and uphold the FGASA Code of Conduct:
