

ADVANCED NATURE ENTHUSIAST CERTIFICATE

This certificate is to provide members of FGASA who have already completed the Nature Enthusiast Certificate with the recognition for having further increased their knowledge and understanding of nature.

This certificate is to provide already qualified FGASA Field Guide (NQF2) [Level 1] who will not gain the required guiding experience to be eligible for the FGASA Advanced Field Guide (NQF4) [Level 2] qualification, with an opportunity to be given recognition for having further increased their knowledge and understanding of nature.

To be eligible for the Advanced Nature Enthusiast Certificate:

- Must be a currently paid-up member with FGASA
- Must have already attained the Nature Enthusiast Certificate or have already attained the FGASA Field Guide (NQF2) [Level 1] Qualification.

To attain this certificate the member will have to be declared competent for the:

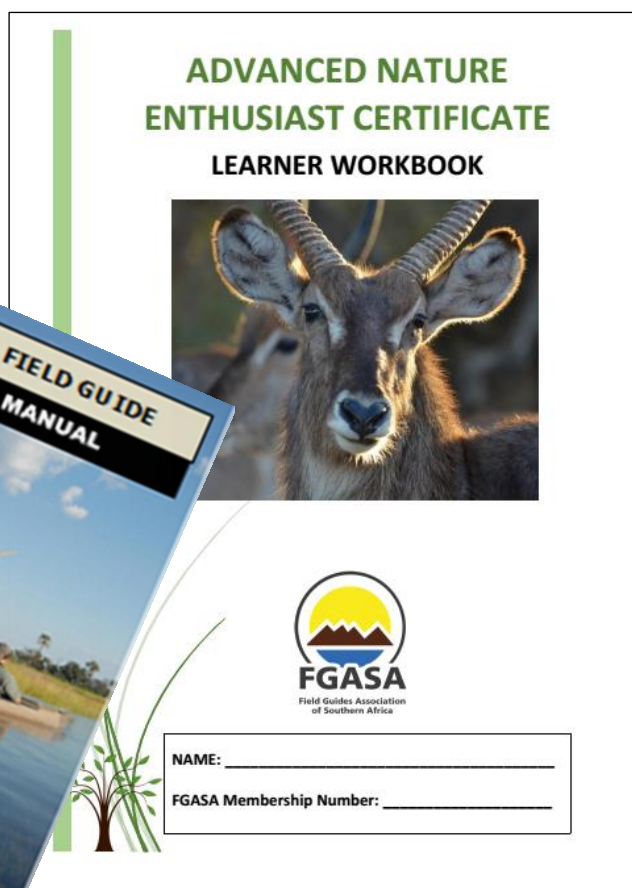

- Advanced Nature Enthusiast Certificate Workbook
- Advanced Nature Enthusiast Certificate Theory Examination

This Certificate does NOT form part of or have any relevance to the FGASA Advanced Field Guide [Level 2] qualification as it is a completely separate non-guiding knowledge Certificate.

Advanced Nature Enthusiast workbook, Learner Manual and local postage fee* (Excluding examination fee)

Examination fee of R250.00

R 500.00
