

THE FGASA MARINE GUIDE (NQF2) CERTIFICATE

Register as a member with The Field Guides Association of Southern Africa (FGASA). Register via www.fgasa.org.za

No

You need to register and pay the required fees

Choose to receive the required Learning Materials either in digital format, or hard copy. These include the Marine Guide Learner Manual, The Art of Guiding, the Marine Guide Study Guide & Workbook & green logbook.

Complete the Marine Guide (NQF2) Workbook while studying to help you to prepare for the theory examination. Compulsory.

Register online for the FGASA Marine (NQF2) theory examination as well as to pay the exam fee

You need to be declared competent (pass) the FGASA Marine Guide (NQF2) theory examination (75%)

You may now book your practical assessment (directly with a FGASA assessor)

You need to submit the completed FGASA Marine Guide (NQF2) Workbook to your assessor for assessment

You need to be declared competent for the FGASA Marine Guide (NQF2) practical assessment

The assessment is SITE specific. You will not obtain a full province.

You will be awarded the FGASA Marine Guide (NQF2) certificate (CATHSSETA NQF2 Certificate).

You can now start logging active guiding experience in the FGASA Green Field Guide Logbook working towards doing the FGASA Field Guide (NQF4) Certificate.

You will need to submit all required further documentation to the FGASA offices for correct registration of your new qualification with CATHSSETA.

A valid first aid certificate is a requirement for all FGASA qualifications

You need to be registered with the National Department of Tourism in order to guide legally.

You need:

- Your FGASA certificate
- Your CATHSSETA certificate
- A certified copy of your first aid
- A certified copy of your ID